Reading: Students discussed visualizing using various trade books. We also have been reading 8 Class Pets + 1 Squirrel / 1 Dog = Chaos as a read aloud.

Language Arts: Students were introduced to verbs this week. Students recognize verbs as action words.

Math: We finished our study of basic subtraction. We will begin addition strategies to 20 next week.

Social Studies: We discussed the election. We read Duck for President and Grace for President while completing various activities.

Religion- We finished reading our Saint Papers and had our Saints Mass. The rest of the week was used to discuss ways to follow in Christ's footsteps as an SJS student.
