Next Week's Word Wall Words

What We Are Learning

Reading: Students have been listening and responding to various Christmas books. Students described the changing character of the Grinch and responded to the book Mooseltoe.

Language Arts: Students learned about and completed activities using synonyms and antonyms.

Math: We finished our study of subtraction strategies. We also completed various graphs about Christmas. Students discussed and responded to questions about the graphs.

Social Studies: We completed our trip around the world to study Christmas Traditions. We made our final stops in Italy, Sweden and Africa as well as learned about the US holiday, Kwanzaa.

Religion– Students continue their study of Advent. We recognized week 3 as a week of joy.

Notes

Please remember students should wear red or green top and uniform bottoms on Tuesday.

Have a fantastic weekend!
